

International Studies Institute Special Lecture

The Politics of Trade in the U.S.

A lecture by ERIC FARNSWORTH
Vice President, Council of the Americas, Washington, D.C.

Friday • February 23, 2018 • 10:00-11:00 am
Dane Smith Hall #125 • UNM Main Campus

Eric Farnsworth has led the Washington office of the Council of the Americas and the Americas Society since 2003. He previously served in the Clinton White House, the U.S. Department of State, and the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative. He is an expert and widely sought-after commentator on a broad range of issues affecting U.S. relations with the Western Hemisphere, including economic development, trade, and energy; Asia-Latin American relations and broader BRICS and global governance issues; security; and democracy. He obtained his MPA in international relations from Princeton's Woodrow Wilson School, and he is a Harry Truman Scholar. In 2016 he was decorated by the king and ambassador of Spain for his work to promote bilateral and regional relations.
